Application Fee Waiver Request

The University of Vermont's Graduate College offers fee waivers for a number of organizations. Instructions and opportunities the Graduate College offers can be found here. Note that waiver requests through the Graduate College or through the MBA program must be submitted before completing an application, no refunds will be given for payment of the application fee.

If you don't qualify for any of the Graduate College waivers, MBA applicants may request an application fee waiver from the SI-MBA Program if they meet one of the following criteria:

- (1) Current or former member of AmeriCorps, Peace Corps, or Teach for America,
- (2) Employee of a non-profit organization, or
- (3) Experiencing financial hardship.

If you would like to request a waiver for a reason not listed above, please provide a brief description below.
